

PA-AST Fall Workshop

“The Future’s So Bright”

Delaware County Community College
901 South Media Line Road Media, PA. 19063

Saturday, September 23, 2017

7:00-8:00	REGISTRATION & BREAKFAST
8:00 – 8:15	Welcome & Opening Remarks
8:15 – 9:15	“Reverse Shoulder Replacement”: Dr. Todd A. Michener
9:15 – 10:15	“Minimally Invasive Heart Surgery”: Dr. Ravi Raman
10:15 – 10:30	BREAK
10:30 – 11:30	“History of Surgery II”: Amanda Minor, CST, AAS
11:30 – 12:30	“The Life of A Surgical Technologist Student”: Michelle A. Muhammad, CST, AAS
12:30 – 1:30	LUNCH / EXHIBITS
1:30 – 2:30	“Bariatric Surgeries”: Dr. Fernando Bonanni
2:30 – 3:30	“Transforming Surgical Technologist To Transform Surgical Technology”: Anbalagan George, MBBS (MD), CST
3:30	CLOSING REMARKS & RAFFLE

6 CE Credits. Topics and speakers are subject to change

Learning Objectives:

- 1. Describe the steps for a reverse shoulder replacement.*
- 2. Illustrate the role of the team in heart surgeries.*
- 3. Relate the importance of the history of surgery to our profession.*
- 4. Discuss what a surgical technologist student goes through and expects from professionals.*
- 5. Explain the differences in the various bariatric surgeries.*
- 6. Discuss the importance of transforming the profession of surgical technology*

Please bring a non-perishable item to donate to the Chester County Food Bank

Visit pa.ast.org to register for this event.

Fees:

AST Members (advanced payment)= $50.00

AST Members (at door payment) = $55.00

Students = $25.00

All others = $60.00

AST Members, please bring your AST Membership Card with you. It will be your ID badge for the event.

Contact Information:

Michelle A. Muhammad 306 Dague Farm Dr. Coatesville, PA 19320

Cell: 281-703-3593 or email: mmcst19@gmail.com